Your news

Whatever news you have to share, we always want to hear from our alumni.

Using the Your News pages on your.bham (http://bhamalumni.org/NetCommunity/Page.aspx?pid=211), you can let your former classmates know what you've been up to since leaving University. Just fill in the online news form (http://bhamalumni.org/NetCommunity/Page.aspx?pid=211) and your update will appear for all your friends to see. You can also read news from your friends by choosing the relevant class year.

A small selection of the news posted is printed in the Class Notes (/alumni/news/Class-notes.aspx) section of the alumni magazine Old Joe (/alumni/news/old-joe/index.aspx), which is posted to more than 165,000 alumni worldwide every year.

Your news might read something like:

Richard Morris (LLB Law, 1968) "I spent two months last year on a volunteer placement teaching in a village school in Ghanpokhara, Nepal; 2120 metres high in the mountains as a retirement project. Although facilities were limited by European standards, the children were mostly keen to learn and a joy to teach."

Paul Dobinson (BSc Sport and Exercise Sciences, 2000)
"I won my first two international caps for Bermuda in rugby in summer tests against Barbados and Trinidad and Tobago. Been living in Bermuda now for four years with my wife Maria (nee Terry), who is also Class of 2000."
