Exhibitions and events at the Cadbury Research Library

Events and exhibitions

Civic Science: Oliver Lodge and Birmingham (/events/exhibitions/civic-science-oliver-lodge.aspx)

03/02/2015 - 18/05/2015

Muirhead Atrium

Exhibition from the Cadbury Research Library highlighting aspects of the career of the British physicist Oliver Lodge, during his time as Principal at the University of Birmingham (1900-1919). Including his influence on the development of the institution, as well as his scientific research and other interests.

Displaying 1 to 1 of 1

Exhibitions elsewhere

The Cadbury Research Library lends material for public exhibitions at other venues. Below are some of the current or forthcoming exhibitions that feature loans from our collections. If your organisation would like to borrow material from the collections for exhibition, please see our Information for Borrowers (/facilities/cadbury/documents/Information-for-Borrowers-(PDF-822KB).pdf) document.

Magna Carta: Law, Liberty, Legacy (http://www.bl.uk/whatson/exhibitions/magna-carta/index.html)

13/03/2015 - 01/09/2015

British Library

Exhibition displaying the Magna Carta

Displaying 1 to 1 of 1

There is also a partial list of exhibitions we have provided loans to (/facilities/cadbury/events/past-loans.aspx) in the past.

© University of Birmingham 2015