We use cookies to ensure that we deliver the best user experience of our website. If you would like to, you can change your cookie settings at any time. Continue

Selected research news

October 2013 : Dr Samir Dirar wins EPSRC grant: Implications of the embedded through-section technique for improving the resilience and sustainability of existing reinforced concrete infrastructure

September 2013: Prof Chris Baker and Dr Hassan Hemida are co-awarded with Southampton University for Track Systems For High Speed Railways: Getting It Right.

July 2013: Dr Andrew Quinn signs a deal to carry out the next phase of Climate Change Adaptation – TRaCCA T1009-01 project with Arup

June 2013: Professor Christopher Rogers and team are awarded £2million from EPSRC for the project Assessing the Underworld - An Integrated Performance Model of City Infrastructures.

April 2013: Prof Chis Baker is sponsored by Arup to carry out Aerodynamic Investigations for HS2.

- March 2013: Professor Chris Baker is awarded a project from the Commission of the European Communities for Living in a sustainable world focused on electrified rail.
- December 2012: Prof Chris Baker successfully bids to the EU to carry out an FP7 Collaborative project, Living Rail.• March 2013: Dr Nicole Metje wins an EPSRC grant for the project Smart Leak Detection Pipes.
- November 2012: Profs Mark Sterling and Chris Baker are awarded a contract from the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs for the provision of evidence and analysis: To develop a model of lodging risk in oilseed rape to enable integrated lodging control and reduce PGR use.
- September 2012: Prof John Bridgeman is awarded a project under the EU FP7 framework MC IEF: Fluorescence-Based Optimisation of Sewage Treatment (Fluro-BOOST)

© University of Birmingham 2014