Virtual Recruitment fair

Date: Summer term 2015 (date to be confirmed)
Place: Exclusively online

Our 2014 Virtual Recruitment Fair has now taken place, below you will find further information about the event and how it works.

How it works

The event is exclusively online and offers you the opportunity to promote your current vacancies and work experience opportunities including graduate roles over a 2 week period. This event provides you with an extremely cost effective means of engaging with our penultimate and final year students who are actively seeking employment opportunities and also offers an excellent platform for promoting upcoming recruitment campaigns.

What's included

- Your own exhibitor profile including your company logo with direct links to your graduate recruitment webpages of your choice via the Virtual Recruitment Fair for an entire 2 week period
- The option to upload presentations, videos and podcasts for students to view
- All setting up is taken care of by the Careers Network team

Why should I book?

- The Virtual Recruitment Fair is open to all recruiters, large and small/medium organisations are all welcome
- Very cost effective way of raising your business profile, reaching career focussed students and graduates for an entire 2 week period
- An excellent medium to promote your upcoming recruitment campaigns

Book a place

Bookings for the next Virtual Recruitment Fair will open around Easter 2015. To register an interest in exhibiting at the event, or to find our further information please contact a member of the Employer Relations Team at recruiters@contacts.bham.ac.uk (mailto:recruiters@contacts.bham.ac.uk)
