How to find George Cadbury Hall

The Department of Drama and Theatre Arts
University of Birmingham
George Cadbury Hall
998 Bristol Road
Selly Oak Campus
B29 6LG

Getting here by road

George Cadbury Hall is on the Bristol Road (A38), three miles south west of the centre of Birmingham. If approaching from the city centre, pass Sainsbury's supermarket on the right in Selly Oak and then go through a set of traffic lights and George Cadbury Hall is about half a mile from here, set back on the left. Parking is available behind the theatre.

Getting here by train

Getting here by bus

The Travel West Midlands bus services that lead along the Bristol Road are nos 61, 62 and 63. You can catch these from Stephenson Street in the centre of Birmingham. If you are a registered student of the University, or a member of staff, and you are travelling between the Edgbaston campus and the Selly Oak campus, you are entitled to a free bus pass which allows you to travel on the 46 or 44 bus between the two sites.
