Meet the students

Some of our international students share their views on what it is like being a student at the University of Birmingham.

Xin Zheng from China - BA Education programme (speaking in Mandarin with English subtitles)

English translation (/Documents/college-social-sciences/education/international-translations/xin-zheng.pdf) (97KB, PDF)

[redacted]

Ai from Japan - Teaching English as a Foreign Language (TEFL) course (speaking in Japanese with English subtitles)

English Translation (/Documents/college-social-sciences/education/international-translations/ai-ushirokoshi.pdf) (123KB, PDF)

[redacted]

Lila from Greece - PhD Education (speaking in Greek with English subtitles)

English Translation (/Documents/college-social-sciences/education/international-translations/lila-kossyvaki.pdf) (17KB, PDF)

[redacted]

Xiao Xiao from China - Teaching English as a Foreign Language (TEFL) course (speaking in Mandarin with English subtitles)

English Translation (/Documents/college-social-sciences/education/international-translations/xiao-xiao.pdf) (27KB, PDF)

[redacted]

Patricia Perez from Spain - On a PhD Internship (speaking in Spanish)

[redacted]

Meghan Lee-Waterman from Trinidad and Tobago - MA in Autism (Children)

[redacted]

Joanna Hulzenga from Canada - MA in Autism (Children)

[redacted]

Happy Agbenyega from Ghana - MEd in International Studies in Education

[redacted]

© University of Birmingham 2014