Embark on postgraduate study in Classics, Ancient History and Archaeology (CAHA) at the College of Arts and Law, University of Birmingham and you become a partner in an internationally acclaimed research community.

In the 2008 Research Assessment Exercise, a full 50% of all research by our academic staff was rated as either 'internationally excellent' or 'world-leading' - the highest ranking possible. Our members collaborate with colleagues in universities in Europe and worldwide, and our postgraduate community is strongly international.

The College of Arts and Law offers a stimulating and supportive research environment for postgraduate study in all its disciplines. The postgraduate community is vibrant and productive and students are encouraged to enter fully into the life of the Institute and the University.
