Birmingham Law School to Visit Mauritius

Posted on Wednesday 30th January 2013

Birmingham Law School will be visiting Mauritius to speak to prospective students between the 18-22 February 2013. Dr Claire McIvor, Lecturer in the Law School, will be available to talk to interested students about the Law programmes at Birmingham and provide advice about student life at Birmingham, entry requirements and how to apply.

Birmingham Law School have scholarships available on all LLB and LLM programmes within the school and Mauritian students are encouraged to apply for these. Full details can be found on the Birmingham Law School website (/schools/law/courses/index.aspx) .

To book a place at any of the below events please use the contact details which are provided.

Mon 18 February

Event: 'Study Law in the UK' seminar
Time: 1300-1600
Venue: IDP Education, 20 Edith Cavell St, 4th floor Ken Lee Building Port Louis
Contact: Christine Faugoo - 230 2101971

Tues 19th February

Event: Student Interviews
Time: 1200-1600
Venue: EDABROAD, Cnr St Jean Rd & Draper Ave, Quatre Bornes
Contact: Maggie Dowlut/Lyn Maurice 230 466 5366

Wed 20th February

Event: IDP Fair followed by Student counselling
Time: 0900-1330 & 1430-1800
Venue: Labourdonnais Waterfront Hotel Port-Louis
Contact: Christine Faugoo - 230 2101971

Thurs 21st February

Event: Student Interviews
Time: 1000-1200
Venue: Campus Abroad, 9 Charles de Gaulle Street, Rose-Hill
Contact: Rajeshwari Jaysanker - 230 294 6655 or 467 6200

© University of Birmingham 2015