Recent publications

Recently published: Transnational crimes related to health: How should the law respond to the illicit organ tourism? (/schools/law/news/2013/12/recent-transnational-health-crimes.aspx)

Birmingham Law School and Centre for Health Law, Science and Policy academics Professor Jean McHale and Dr Sheelagh McGuinness publish paper in Legal Studies.

12/12/2013

Supreme Court of Canada cites book by Birmingham Law Professor (/schools/law/news/2013/07/cryer-canada-court.aspx)

Professor Rob Cryer's textbook ' An Introduction to International Criminal Law and Procedure' cited in Ezkola v Canada (Citizenship and Immigration [2013] SCC 40 (19 July 2013)

24/07/2013

Dr Orakhelashvili Presents at the Asser Institute (/schools/law/news/2013/07/orakhelashvili-asser.aspx)

Birmingham law lecturer presented a paper on the EU sanctions against Iran and Syria

24/07/2013

Dr Alexander Orakhelashvili presents at Senate in Paris (/schools/law/news/2013/06/orakhelashvili-paris.aspx)

Birmingham law lecturer presented a paper on the impact of unilateral sanctions on the UN collective security framework at conference held at Palace of Luxembourg

06/06/2013

Just published: Dr Rosa Freedman, The UN Human Rights Council - A critique and early assessment (/schools/law/news/2013/freedman-unhrc.aspx)

The latest book by Dr Rosa Freedman, lecturer at Birmingham Law School and expert in International Human Rights Law, was published this week by Routledge as part of its Research in Human Rights series.

06/03/2013

Recently published: Professor Andrew Sanders, Bioethics, Medicine and the Criminal Law (/schools/law/news/2013/sanders-bioethics-medicine-criminal-law.aspx)

At the end of January Cambridge University Press published the latest work by Birmingham Law School's Professor Andrew Sanders, Professor of Criminal Law and Criminology and currently Head of School.

24/02/2013

Just published: Sophie Boyron's new book on the Constitution of France (/schools/law/news/2013/boyron-constitution-france.aspx)

Birmingham Law School is delighted to announce the publication of Sophie Boyron's book "The Constitution of France: A Contextual Analysis". The book is published by Hart as part of its highly prestigious and successful "Constitutional Systems of the World" series.

04/02/2013

Recently published: End-of-Life Decisions in Medical Care by Dr Stephen W. Smith (/schools/law/news/2012/smith-end-life-book.aspx)

The latest book by Birmingham Law School's Dr Stephen Smith was published last month by Cambridge University Press

09/03/2012

Research Handbook on the Theory and History of International Law (/schools/law/news/2011/orakhelashvili-research-handbook.aspx)

Dr Alexander Orakhelashvili is the editor, and one of the featured authors, of the new Research Handbook On The Theory And History Of International Law, published by Edward Elgar Publishing in July 2011.

21/07/2011

Recently published: The Independence Principle of Letters of Credit and Demand Guarantees (/schools/law/news/2011/enonchong-independence-principles.aspx)

New book by Barber Professor of Law, Nelson Enonchong

14/05/2011

Recently published: Collective Security (/schools/law/news/2011/orakhelashvili-collective-security.aspx)

New book by lecturer Alexander Orakhelashvili

21/04/2011

Recently published: Whose Criminal Justice? State or Community? (/schools/law/news/2011/doolin-whose-criminal-justice.aspx)

Law School's Dr Doolin co-edits and contributes to first edited collection from University of Birmingham Community and Criminal Justice Group

19/04/2011

Recently published: Governance through Development (/schools/law/news/2011/tan-governance.aspx)

In February 2011 Routledge published a major new work by the Law School's Dr. Celine Tan.

31/03/2011

Recently published: From House of Lords to Supreme Court (/schools/law/news/2011/lords-supreme-court.aspx)

Collection edited by Mr James Lee comprises the papers presented at the Centenary Seminar of the Society of Legal Scholars

01/03/2011

Displaying 1 to 14 of 14

© University of Birmingham 2015