Study spaces on campus

From large computer clusters to private group study zones, there's a wide range of study spaces on campus which are open to students of all disciplines. Whether you need to cram for exams, print a dissertation, or just relax between classes, this handy guide provides all the details you will need to make the most of the spaces available.

Each of these spaces has its own characteristics. Trying a variety should enable you to find a space that best suits your needs at particular times.

Study space restrictions

Outside office hours some study spaces are restricted to students from specific Schools.
