BA English Language and English Literature

Join one of the largest concentrations of English specialists in the UK with a range of expertise across English Literature and English Language. Our BA English Language and English Literature programme allows you to benefit from distinctive, engaging and globally recognised teaching and research across the full span of the discipline. You will study equal proportions of language and literature and as a result you will have a wide range of modules to choose from. The programme draws on the department's many strengths including corpus linguistics, literature of all periods, stylistics, Shakespeare and applied linguistics. English Language and English Literature graduates from Birmingham benefit from a high rate of employability for the subject, with 90% going into work or study within six months of graduation. They have secured work in areas including advertising, recruitment consultancy, marketing, editing and teaching at every level.
