News from across the College

News from Business School

Atom Feed Rss Feed

Student profile: Khilna Morjaria, MBA International Business

Khilna Morjaria studied the International Business MBA programme at Birmingham Business School and found studying the perfect fit for her career.

24/04/2014

Alumni, International, Social Sciences, Students

Musicalisation of Running: Experiencing Pleasurable Escape

Dr. Finola Kerrigan discusses the role of music with regards to running, and how some may use it to create soundscapes in order to enhance their running experience.

11/04/2014

Research, Social Sciences, Sport

Displaying 1 to 2 of 319
Previous 1 2 3 4 5 ... Next

News from School of Social Policy

Atom Feed Rss Feed

Whose interests do we protect by refusing children asylum? Not ours, nor the children

Dr Nando Sigona of the Institute for Researchinto Superdiversity (IRiS), writes in 'The Conversation' in a recent article entitled 'Whose interests do we protect by refusing children asylum? Not ours, nor the children'.

10/04/2014

Research, Social Sciences

Research shows growth in empty homes activity in the Midlands

The Housing and Communities Research Group at the University of Birmingham has today launched a case studies report following a programme of research, funded by the Building and Social Housing Foundation (BSHF) and the Third Sector Research Centre (TSRC), to evaluate the impact of the Empty Homes Community Grants Programme (EHCGP) in the Midlands.

08/04/2014

Research, Social Sciences

Displaying 7 to 8 of 533
Previous ... 2 3 4 5 6 ... Next

News from School of Education

Atom Feed Rss Feed

CRRE members interviewed on race and education during visit to Urbana-Champaign

David Gillborn and Paul Warmington are interviewed for a video in the University of Illinois

20/03/2014

Social Sciences

New publication explores levels of achievement amongst boys who attended a selective school in Birmingham

Gemma Collins, is a co-author on a new publication published in the Educational Review. Social mobility or social reproduction? A case study of the attainment patterns of students according to their social background and ethnicity

19/03/2014

Research, Social Sciences

Displaying 9 to 10 of 168
Previous ... 3 4 5 6 7 ... Next

News from School of Government and Society

Atom Feed Rss Feed

50 faces of CREES #52 - Paul Barton, B.Com (Russian Studies) 1964-67

When I arrived in 1964, the Social Sciences buildings were very new. I returned in 1999, when my daughter was visiting potential universities, and it looked very down-at-heel. One of the great advantages of CREES was having our own library, which served as both a study area and a social centre - a common room of sorts - where students from all the years mixed and chatted.

24/04/2014

Social Sciences

Blog: Should I stay or should I go? Why the UK should stay out of the Crimea issue

Iván Farías, Doctoral Researcher in the Department of Political Science and International Studies argues why the UK should stay out of the Crimea issue.

24/04/2014

Research, Social Sciences, Students

Displaying 1 to 2 of 1000
Previous 1 2 3 4 5 ... Next

© University of Birmingham 2014