Revelation of Tesco accounting error may have done new board a favour (/schools/business/departments/Accounting-Finance/news/2014/september/revelation-of-tesco-accounting-error-may-have-done-new-board-a-favour-25-09-14.aspx)

There is a long history of companies misstating their financial position and performance, and on Monday Tesco plc became the latest with its announcement that it had overstated its half-year profit forecast by £250 million. This revelation, arising from information provided by an internal whistle-blower, resulted in an 11 per cent reduction in the supermarket giant's share price, putting the share value at an 11-year low. How can an error this large have occurred?
