

Application for Studentship/Scholarship support

*MSc in Applied & Petroleum Micropalaeontology
(University of Birmingham, 2015-2016)*

---

Note, you can only submit this form once you have accepted an offer (conditional or unconditional) from the University of Birmingham, you may still be awaiting the outcome of your final degree result. You will then be considered for all available scholarships. These awards are only available to UK and other EU applicants.

---

Name:

UoB Applicant number:

Email address:

(for notification of the awards decision)

First Degree Title & Subject:

(e.g. BSc Geology, MGeol Geology):

University:

Degree awarded :

(e.g. BSc, BA, MSci)

Year of award:

Degree Class (if known):

(If degree result is not known at this time, please email as soon as result is available)

Referee's Email:

(Please provide the email of one academic referee, who we may contact, this may be someone who has already provided a reference for your application to the course)

Supporting statement

In the supporting statement over, please outline (i) your interest in Micropalaeontology and your reasons for applying to this course, (ii) highlight any past taught courses within the discipline (undergraduate courses, lectures attended, undergraduate projects or dissertations, awards). If you have undertaken work placements/internships with relevant companies or have been an employee of a relevant company, or have any publications, please supply details.

Note this application may be shared with external partners, in their role as fund trustees or industry sponsors.

---

The Application Deadline is Midday Friday 29th May. Forms should be emailed directly to the Course Director to arrive by that date (i.boomer@bham.ac.uk). Results will be announced by the end of July.

Supporting statement

Name:

Please do not exceed 1 side