MAKING TOUGHS DECISIONS: A WORKSHOP

1ST IN A 3-PART SERIES ON CONTEMPORARY ISSUES IN HEALTH MANAGEMENT

16:30 - 19:30 // 13TH SEPT 2017 // STRATHALLAN HOTEL, HAGLEY RD

IDEAL FOR SENIOR MANAGERS IMPLEMENTING STPS
INCLUDES NETWORKING & LIGHT SUPPER

Led by Dr Iestyn Williams, Director of Research at the Health Services Management Centre, this session will share findings from a major NIHR-funded study of practice and experience of decommissioning in the NHS, drawing on international examples, in order to support STPs in making tough financial decisions about health and care.

The Health Services Management Centre at the University of Birmingham is one of the UK’s foremost centres for research, evaluation, teaching and professional development for health and social care organisations.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT
KAYLEIGH MORRIS: KAYLEIGH.MORRIS4@NHS.NET