

University of Birmingham and University of Lagos Foundation Programme: Direct entry for Unilag students

The University of Birmingham is one of the world's top universities and a leading teaching and research institution based in the UK's second largest city.

The University is a truly global university with over 4,500 international students from nearly 150 different countries and a popular study destination for Nigerian students. Birmingham is a thriving city with first-class cultural, social and sporting facilities.

The University of Birmingham welcomes applications from students studying the University of Lagos Foundation Programme. To be considered for undergraduate entry, you are required to successfully complete the relevant foundation programme and achieve the following:

Scholarships of up to £2,500 per year are available for students from the University of Lagos for selected programmes.

Applications for all other non-listed undergraduate programmes are welcomed and will be considered on an individual basis.

An application can be made via UCAS at www.ucas.ac.uk with a closing deadline of 30 June each year.
