We are extremely happy that you are considering coming to study at the University of Birmingham. These are exciting times for the University.

The University of Birmingham is delighted that Lord Bilimoria of Chelsea, CBE, DL, has been installed as the University’s seventh Chancellor in a ceremony in July 2014. The India-born founder of Cobra Beer, Lord Bilimoria follows a long line of distinguished University of Birmingham Chancellors who include the Right Honourable Joseph Chamberlain, the Right Honourable Anthony Eden, Earl of Avon, and Sir Dominic Cadbury, who stepped down last December after 11 years in the role. Lord Bilimoria embodies the character, spirit, and ethos of the University and he will make a powerful and lasting contribution to this University.

In his acceptance speech Lord Bilimoria said: “The University of Birmingham is a wonderful institution with such an illustrious history dating back to its foundation by Joseph Chamberlain in 1900. It is also the University where my mother, my uncle and my maternal grandfather studied. I am delighted to have the opportunity to take on such a prominent role at the University that has not only been named The Times and The Sunday Times University of the Year 2013–14, but is genuinely going from strength to strength. I believe that there is enormous potential in continuing to build mutually beneficial links between business, industry and the University. I am looking forward enormously to the role.”

According to the fourth annual Universitas 21 Ranking of National Higher Education Systems, the United Kingdom is home to one of highest performing university systems in the world. The report places the UK second only to the United States for global research outputs, the quality of its best institutions, the impact of its research and the production of an educated workforce that meets labour market needs. The University is recognised globally as a leader for Higher Education, delivering excellent quality teaching, and maintaining its reputation of being at the forefront of research. As such, we welcome international diversity at Birmingham and are confident that your student experience with us is going to be an outstanding one.

As an international student we know that your time at Birmingham will be exciting, challenging, academically rewarding, and enjoyable. You will play an important role in enriching and enhancing the experience for all our students and staff, helping to make the University of Birmingham a global campus.

This guide has been prepared to help you manage the process of planning and moving to the UK to start your studies. You will find information on how to make a visa application, make arrangements to travel to the UK, and what to expect once you arrive here. We also have an exciting Welcome Week planned so please look for further information on Welcome International events on page 13. To help ease your transition into the University we have provided you with a wide range of information on topics such as registering with us and what our different Schools across the Colleges can offer you.

I wish you a safe journey and we look forward to meeting and welcoming you to the University of Birmingham.

Professor Sir David Eastwood
Vice-Chancellor
The International Students’ Advisory Service (ISAS)

ISAS provides support for international and EEA students. Our advisers can help you prepare to come to the UK and support you during your studies. Our service is free and available to prospective students and current students at the University of Birmingham.

This section will tell you about the support you can expect from the ISAS. We are looking forward to meeting and getting to know you as a student at the University of Birmingham. Coming to live and study in another country is a huge decision for you and you may find that there are times when being in another culture is very exciting and enjoyable, but at times you may miss the things that are familiar to you. The ISAS is here to help you with practical matters when things are going well and when they may not be. We want you to make the ISAS your first point of contact for questions or to tell us about your concerns.

We can provide support to:
- Current students and their dependants
- Prospective students and students holding offers

Queries we can assist with
- Student visa applications (inside or outside the UK)
- Student dependant visa applications (inside or outside the UK)
- Immigration issues during your studies
- Entry Clearance Correction Scheme (ECCS)
- Living in the UK
- Financial and hardship issues
- General welfare advice

We give advice on the things you need to know about when coming to and living at the University and UK, including immigration, support for families, social activities during the year and living in the UK. We work closely with other University departments that teach or support international students to ensure you have the best experience possible.

We publish a regular newsletter which we send to international students.

We also include important information and alerts about visas, activities and other relevant issues to international students on our website.

We provide support to students needing to extend their visas to continue with their studies. We do this by checking visa supporting documents before a Confirmation for Acceptance of Studies (CAS) is assigned. Students should check the workshops section on our website for details of our document checking workshops.

Our services
- Email advice service via www.studenthelp.bham.ac.uk
- Workshops on student visa extensions and cultural awareness
- Online guides about immigration, visas and other issues
- International students newsletter
- One-to-one appointments with trained advisors

Immigration and visas

The University and your visa
The University holds a UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) Sponsor licence which allows us to recruit and enrol international students. As a sponsor of Tier 4 students we have to meet UKVI legal requirements. The University must monitor your arrival, progress and attendance and must tell UKVI if you don’t arrive and register at the start of your course, if you withdraw or take a leave of absence or if you fail to make your points of contact throughout the year.

For full information about your responsibilities as a University of Birmingham sponsored student and on the University’s reporting responsibilities please read the Protecting Your Immigration Status Guide at intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/studentservices/international/documents/public/immigration-protecting-guide.pdf

Common Travel Area
This information is applicable to those nationals who can access the Common Travel Area.
The United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man and the Republic of Ireland collectively form a common travel area (CTA). If you are person who has been examined for the purpose of immigration control at the point at which you entered the area you do not normally require leave to enter any other part of it and entry granted into the CTA is as a general visitor (eg a tourist).

If you are ☐ Coming to the University of Birmingham for the purposes of study; and ☐ Plying to an airport/port of arrival in the Republic of Ireland;
☐ And you will travel into the United Kingdom to the University of Birmingham

YOU MUST apply for prior entry clearance before you leave your home country;

If you are a non-visa national who does not apply for your visa before you leave your home country, when you arrive in the Republic of Ireland and come through immigration control, the Immigration Officer will grant you entry as a tourist. An Irish Immigration Officer has no legal jurisdiction to grant any entry to the UK other than as a tourist so they will not be able to give you entry as a student to the UK. When you arrive at the University of Birmingham you will only have a CTA tourist visa as proof of arrival and will NOT be permitted to study.

For a list of EEA countries please visit: www.ukcis.org.uk/International-Students/Fees--finance/Home-or-Overseas-fees/Definitions/#eea

What type of visa do I need?
Our website explains the types of visa you can apply for, the documents needed, how to apply and what to do if your application is refused. As UK immigration rules can change very quickly it is important to use the most up-to-date information when applying for a visa.

Please note that students coming to the UK for 6 months or longer will be issued with a temporary (30 day) visa, and will need to collect a Biometric Residence Permit (BRP) on arrival in the UK. Students should enter the University of Birmingham ‘ACL’ code when completing the visa application form to ensure their BRP card is delivered to the University campus. Please see www.birmingham.ac.uk/international/students/visas/biometricresidencepermits.aspx

When can I make my visa application?
The earliest you can make a visa application is three months before your course starts. You should make your application as soon as you can and you should start planning your visa application now – for example, making sure money is in your bank account and getting your documents ready.

For immigration advice
Website: www.birmingham.ac.uk/international/students/visas
Make an online enquiry at www.studenthelp.bham.ac.uk

When you contact us please provide as much information as possible about your situation and if you have a Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS) statement, please attach a scan of it with your online enquiry.

What should I do when I receive my visa?
✓ Check the ‘valid from’ date – this is the date from which you can travel to the UK
✓ Check the visa expiry date to make sure you have been given a visa for the correct length of time some students may be issued a 30 day visa and will need to collect a BRP card, on arrival in the UK
✓ If you are required to collect a BRP card on arrival you need to inform the University by completing an online form at intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/studentservices/international/visas/brp-collection-form.aspx
✓ Check all your details are correct, eg, name and date of birth
✓ If you have applied as a Tier 4 (General) Student Visa check that your visa does not ‘prohibit’ you from working
✓ If your visa states you must register with the police you are required by UK law to do this – please see page 13 for further details
✓ If any of the above appear incorrect, please make an online enquiry at www.studenthelp.bham.ac.uk

What do I do if my visa is refused?
✓ Email us a scanned copy of your refusal letter and the document(s) which the Entry Clearance Officer has refused
✓ Make an online enquiry at www.studenthelp.bham.ac.uk and we will then advise whether you should ask for an Administrative Review or make a new application
✓ You have 28 days from the date the refusal notice is given to you to make an Administrative Review. An Administrative Review can only look at the evidence you submitted with your original application, it cannot consider any additional/new documents

Can I bring my family with me?
Information on applying for visas for family members is available on the ISAS website www.birmingham.ac.uk/international/dependants

Already have a visa for a different institution?
If you already have a visa for another university in the UK you will not be able to use it for the University of Birmingham and will need to switch your visa using a CAS statement from Birmingham.

Will I need any health checks as part of my visa application?
Please check with your nearest British Embassy/High Commission.
Information for Erasmus, International Exchange and Study Abroad students

The information in this section is a brief overview. If you have any further questions about this please contact the Study Abroad and Exchanges team and they will be very happy to reply to you.

Your Departmental Tutor
You will be assigned to a host department which will be named on your offer letter. Each department has an Exchanges Tutor who can assist with questions about modules in his/her department.

Accommodation application form and deadlines
Information about applying for accommodation is on your offer letter. Please check with Accommodation Services for information about the deadline to apply for September 2014.

Not starting your course in September?
You will be given the application deadline in your offer letter.

Am I guaranteed University accommodation?
International exchange students who apply on time are guaranteed University accommodation. Erasmus students are not guaranteed accommodation but you can still apply if you don't get a room on campus and Accommodation Services will put you on a waiting list or help you with finding private accommodation. It is usually possible to organise University accommodation for students arriving in January.

I am a Study Abroad programme student - am I guaranteed University accommodation?
Yes, if you are from outside of the EU. You must still apply for accommodation before the application deadline.

Academic matters
Choosing your academic programme
☐ Your provisional choices of modules are made on your application form and finalised when you arrive
☐ Module choices are provisional and cannot always be guaranteed
☐ Dissertation modules are not normally available for Erasmus, International Exchange and Study Abroad students
☐ Erasmus and International Exchange students are not registered on a specific degree programme and you are limited to how many modules you can take in certain departments
☐ For the full list of modules that are available to Erasmus, International Exchange and Study Abroad students please visit www.birmingham.ac.uk/students/studyabroad/modules
☐ For advice on the differences between studying in your home country and in the UK please see the 'Studying at the University' section on page 14

Assessment and exams
Methods of study in the UK may be different from those in your own country. You will have several coursework assignments due at the same time at the end of each term and it is important that you plan your work schedule in advance. Speak to your school or department about assessment and examinations timetables. Our section 'Studying at the University' can be found on page 14.

If you are not staying for a full academic year, you must check with the module tutor as to what form of alternative assessment will be provided since you will miss the exams in May/June.

English assessment test
All Erasmus, International Exchange and Study Abroad students who are non-native speakers of English must take an English assessment test at the Birmingham International Academy (BIA) when they arrive in Birmingham. This test is to help you diagnose areas where your English needs some work and is NOT an exam.

Module registration form
When you arrive you will be given a module registration form to complete and return to the Study Abroad and Exchanges Office.

Do I have to pay tuition fees to the University?
Study Abroad students – Yes: the amount you have to pay is stated in your offer letter. For information on payment email: studyabroad@bham.ac.uk

Erasmus and International Exchange students – No: you are not required to pay tuition fees but you are responsible for meeting all other living costs.

Get involved
Eurobrum
Eurobrum is the society for Erasmus and International Exchange students at the University which provides you with an opportunity to socialise with exchange and home students www.guildofstudents.com/groups/eurobrum

Be an ambassador
You can act as an ambassador for your home university involving helping at the Study Abroad Fair, giving presentations about your home university and advising University of Birmingham students about taking a year abroad.

Erasmus code
The Erasmus code for the University of Birmingham is: UK BIRMING02.

Birmingham International Academy (BIA)

BIA provides English language support for non-native speakers and is located in Priorsfield on the University campus.

Free English language support
If your first language is not English, BIA offers free individual sessions and term-time classes in academic writing, grammar, vocabulary, speaking and listening and exam skills to help you improve your academic English.

In order to find out whether you would benefit from this free English language support, we ask all international students whose first language is not English to take our online self-assessment test at the start of their studies here. Please note that this is NOT an exam – there is no pass or fail mark, and the result will not change your status at the University.

Presessional courses
BIA also runs full-time presessional courses in academic English if you have not yet met the English language requirements attached to your offer, or if you wish to improve your English language and academic skills before your academic course starts.

Day trips
BIA organises a variety of popular day trips every term to places of cultural and historic interest such as Stonehenge, Bath, Oxford, York and Warwick Castle.

Birmingham International Academy (Foundation programme)

We are delighted to welcome students attending the foundation programme at the Birmingham International Academy (BIA).

This guide will provide you with lots of information about preparing to come to the UK, airport collection and what happens during Welcome Week, and if you have any questions contact the ISAS by submitting an online enquiry at www.studenthelp.bham.ac.uk For more information about the ISAS go to www.intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/studentservices/international

Visas
All visa questions are dealt with by the ISAS. You can contact them by submitting an online enquiry at www.studenthelp.bham.ac.uk They will be happy to provide advice about new visas, visa renewal and visas for dependants (husbands/wives and children) of students.

What type of visa do I need to apply for?
If you are applying for your visa from a country outside the UK:
- You must apply for a visa using a Tier 4 (General) Student visa application form
- The form and guidance can be found at www.gov.uk/tier-4-general-visa/apply

If you are already in the UK:
- You must apply for a visa using a Tier 4 (General) Student application form.
- For a form and guidance go to www.gov.uk/tier-4-general-visa/apply

Can I have help with my visa application?
Yes. The ISAS will be very happy to help answer any questions you have about how to fill in your visa form, the documents you need to send with your application or any other questions or concerns you might have. Contact the ISAS on www.studenthelp.bham.ac.uk

What do I do about accommodation?
As a foundation programme student you will be able to choose your accommodation from the wide range available and you can select en suite facilities or share a bathroom. Apartments are self-catering, however there is a catered package available. If you are under the age of 18 then you will live in Mason where our International Support Officer is based. Mason is one of our newest residences on campus and has apartments of six bedrooms each, all with en suite facilities. Mason is located at The Vale, which is one of our largest student villages and is only a short walk away from the Birmingham International Academy. Once you have accepted our offer you can book your accommodation online at www.birmingham.ac.uk/International/foundation-academy/index.aspx

What advice on finance is available?
We have included general advice on financial matters in the ‘Finance’ section on page 9 of this guide. However it is worth remembering when assessing how much you will need to cover living costs in the UK, that your tuition fee already includes an allowance to cover all your books and learning materials.

Where can I find detailed information about my course?
You can find information about the three foundation academic pathways on the BFA website www.birmingham.ac.uk/International/foundation-academy/pathways/index.aspx

You can also find the answers to key academic questions at www.birmingham.ac.uk/International/foundation-academy/faqs/faqs.aspx

If you do not find the answers to your questions about the course on the foundation programme website, you can email questions to the Birmingham International Academy at foundation@contacts.bham.ac.uk

Will I be met at the airport when I arrive in the UK?
The airport collection service will be available on Saturday 19 and Sunday 21 September 2015. You will be able to book onto this from July 2015. Please see the ‘Arriving in the UK’ section on page 11 for further information. We recommend that you use this service. You won’t be on your own as you will be collected with international students from all around the world and it will give you an opportunity to meet and make new friends.

Why should I arrive for Welcome Week?
As a student on the foundation programme, you will play a full part in student life at the University. You will live and study alongside our undergraduate and postgraduate students, and be able to take advantage of our wide range of academic, sporting and cultural facilities. Welcome Week represents a very important start in getting to understand the University and you will meet and make friends with other students from the foundation programme. You will be given a full induction programme to help you settle into life at the University as a student. You can also take part in some other events with non-foundation programme students, which will give you the opportunity to begin to feel part of the whole University of Birmingham experience.

University accommodation
You should have received an accommodation booklet, including information on University and private accommodation options. If you have accepted your offer, but not received an information booklet, please get in touch with the named contact on your offer letter. The University guarantees accommodation to new international students under certain conditions, which will be outlined in your booklet from the Admissions Office.

Ensure that you:
✓ Apply for University accommodation once you have an offer of a place at the University, and before the application deadline date shown in the information booklet
✓ If your visa is later refused, tell the ISAS who will contact Accommodation Services
✓ Read the terms and conditions of the accommodation offer before accepting the offer
✓ Make the online pre-payment before the accommodation offer expiry date to secure your accommodation place OR
✓ Tell Accommodation Services if there will be a delay in sending the pre-payment before the deadline
✓ Apply for short-term accommodation if you are arriving on your own but intend to bring your family at a later date

Finance

There are a number of services in the University that offer financial support and advice.

Student Funding Office
The Student Funding Office provides information and advice about financial support available to students including scholarships for international students.

Tuition fees
The deadline for making payment of your tuition fee is 9th October 2015. You must either pay in full, apply for instalment payments via Direct Debit or provide your sponsor details when registering online. For more information on the payment methods available please visit: www.birmingham.ac.uk/student-fees

Please note: non-payment of tuition fees may lead to you being excluded from the University. If you become excluded, this may have a serious effect on your visa and may mean you having to leave the UK.

Living costs
The University estimates that the cost of living for a single student in University accommodation over a 42-week academic session is £307 a week or £12,894 for 42 weeks. For students who rent a room in a private shared house, this decreases to £257 or £10,794 over 42 weeks. If you are bringing dependants with you, you should allow £400 extra per month for each dependant.

How much money should I bring with me to the UK?
There is no limit on the amount of money you are permitted to bring into the UK, but we advise you not to bring large amounts of cash. If your cash is lost or stolen, the University is not responsible for reimbursing you.

We would strongly urge you to take out travel insurance.

If you have been offered a room in self-catered University accommodation, we would recommend that you bring no more than £600 in cash or preferably travellers cheques. This will cover you for food, bedding and kitchen items for the first month, which you will need to provide yourself.

If you are depositing an international bank draft in a UK bank, you will not be able to draw any money against it for at least three working days after you have opened a bank account.

How do I budget for my time in the UK?
The UNIAID International Student Calculator helps you plan and manage your money for your studies in the UK. You can access the calculator at international.studentcalculator.org.uk/international/

Other useful budgeting resources are:
- The British Council guide Budget planning in the UK at www.educationuk.org/Article/Budget-planning-in-the-UK
- Independent online currency converter: www.oanda.com/currency/converter

Applying for funding
Can I apply for financial assistance towards the cost of my tuition fee?
If you are an EEA national, you may be eligible to apply for UK government financial help towards your tuition costs. If you are a non-EU national, it is unlikely that you qualify for UK government financial help towards your tuition costs, except in certain circumstances. For an explanation of the conditions you need to meet to be eligible for public (UK government) funding for study (student support), you should read the information on the UKCISA website ‘Student Support: applying in England’ at www.ukcisa.org.uk/student/info_sheets/student_support_england.php

Other funding
For information about the different research councils and funding opportunities visit www.birmingham.ac.uk/students/fees/dr/research-council.aspx
Registration

Registering at the University
All students must register online before the start of their course. Instructions on how to register online will be emailed to you along with your username and password. Registration information will be emailed to you from the middle of July 2015.

Important information will be emailed to you so please ensure that the University is aware of your personal email address and that your spam filter is set to receive this correspondence. If your personal email address changes please submit an online enquiry at www.studenthelp.bham.ac.uk to give us your new details, including your student ID number and date of birth in all correspondence.

Once you receive your registration email please read the instructions carefully. If you have any queries, please telephone the Registration Helpline on +44 (0)121 414 9009 or send a message online to the Registration Team at www.registrationhelp.bham.ac.uk.

If you do not receive your registration email two weeks before you arrive do not worry; your University place is safe. Please contact the Registration Helpline for advice.

What do I need to do to register?
✓ Submit a jpeg passport-style photograph so we can create your University Identity Card
✓ This photograph must be of you on your own with your face taking up around 60% of the image
✓ Your full face must be shown on the photograph and must not be covered by hair or a veil

University Identity Card (ID Card)
If you are arriving in September you will collect your University ID Card from the International/EU Welcome Hub during Welcome Week. Opening times of this Welcome Hub can be found at www.birmingham.ac.uk/international.

To collect your ID card you will need:
✓ Your student ID number (written on your registration or offer letter)
✓ Your passport and current visa or Biometric Residence Permit (BRP). If you have been issued a BRP which you need to collect on arrival in the UK you must do so before you can collect your student ID card. If you are collecting your BRP card from campus, you will be emailed details of an appointment which is when you can come to collect your BRP card.

Proof of student status letters
After you collect your ID card you will be able to request proof registration letters, for example:
✓ For opening a bank account
✓ To prove you are a student at the University of Birmingham

What if I am not starting my course in September?
You will be sent a registration email containing your username and password. Please read the registration instructions and register online before you arrive. If you need assistance registering online please contact us at www.studenthelp.bham.ac.uk. Alternatively, you will be able to ask any registration queries you have at Enquiry Services in the Main Library when you arrive.

Arriving in the UK

What happens when I arrive at Airport Immigration Control in the UK?
If you travel to the UK, you will probably arrive at Heathrow or Birmingham airport. It is also possible to arrive by sea via one of the Channel Ports or by Eurostar. In each case you will go through UK Immigration Control. Please note that UK and the Republic of Ireland are part of a Common Travel Area, and there is no immigration control on arrival in the UK: this can cause a problem for non-visa nationals on short courses. Non-visa nationals should therefore not travel via the Republic of Ireland, or should apply for entry clearance before travelling.

✓ You need to show your passport and visa to the Immigration Officer.
✓ The Immigration Officer might ask to see evidence that you meet the requirements your visa ie, a copy of your CAS statement and bank statement or other financial documents to show that you have enough money for your fees and living costs for your studies.
✓ Check your passport when the Immigration Officer returns it to you, to see if they have made any changes to your conditions (for example, by adding a requirement for you to register with the police). If you are unsure why the Immigration Officer has changed your visa, contact the ISAS.
✓ If there are any problems please ring the ISAS immediately on 0121 414 8464 and ask to speak to an adviser. In evenings or at weekends you should ring University Security who will pass your call to a duty-advisor. Security can be contacted on: 0121 414 4444.
✓ Be prepared to speak English, as the Immigration Officer will speak to you and expect you to answer in English.

Declaring cash when you arrive in the UK
When you enter the UK you MUST declare the cash that you are carrying if this amounts to €10,000 or more (including cheques, travellers cheques and bankers drafts) to HM Revenue and Customs (the government tax office). You will find the relevant forms to fill out at ports and airports. You will be responsible for financial penalties if you fail to declare the money or provide incomplete or incorrect information. The only exception to this requirement is if you are travelling to or from another EU country (you will not need to declare cash over €10,000).

Learn more on the HM Revenue and Customs website: www.hmrc.gov.uk

Airport Collection Service (Meet and Greet)
A free airport collection service is available for new international students who will be arriving at London Heathrow, Gatwick and Birmingham airports on Saturday 19 and Sunday 20 September 2015. Additional services will also be running from Birmingham airports between Friday 18- Tuesday 22 September 2015.
If you would like to use this service you will need to register in advance and we advise that you book early to guarantee your place. For collection times and to book a seat please visit: www.birmingham.ac.uk/welcome/international/travel.aspx

Note: If you use the free airport collection service, there will be a limit on the amount of luggage you can bring on the coach. There will be a limit of one large item of luggage and two small items. For example, in addition to a suitcase you could bring a cabin sized case and a handbag. If you have more than this, please make your own arrangements to get your extra belongings shipped to the UK.

When you visit our booking website you will find information about the ‘Meet and Greet’ team and how to identify them.

Travelling on your own to the University
If you plan to travel to the University independently it is advisable to carefully plan your journey in advance. For travel guidance please visit: www.birmingham.ac.uk/welcome/international/travel.aspx

Can I advance mail and store my luggage?
The University cannot accept mail or store any luggage sent in advance. If you want to bring more belongings with you than you can take on your flight, we recommend that you have them shipped over when you have settled into your accommodation. Alternatively, some private companies can arrange for your luggage to be shipped in advance and stored until you arrive.

Delayed or lost luggage
Our students normally have no problems with lost luggage, but in very rare cases, luggage can sometimes be delayed or mislaid and not arrive with your flight. If, after waiting by the luggage carousel, your luggage does not arrive you should follow these steps:

- Do not leave the luggage collection area – you must first go to the helpdesk/luggage enquiries desk and tell the official there that your luggage has not arrived: you will be asked for the following items, so have them ready:
  - Your ticket, showing your luggage receipts and flight details
  - A description of the missing luggage
  - Your address in the UK (if you have arranged accommodation in advance, like halls of residence) or the address of the University 24-hour security point (if you have not arranged accommodation in advance): Security Centre, Aston Webb Building, University of Birmingham, Edgbaston, Birmingham, B15 2TT (Security Control Room tel: 0121 414 3000)

Once the airport official has taken all your details, they will explain the airline’s procedures for dealing with lost luggage and will give you:

- A reference number (with possibly a form)
- A telephone number for you to call for any news, or a website address (the official may be able to find out where your luggage is at that time, or you may have to wait for news)
- Ask the official if they have a free emergency overnight kit, which will contain toiletries such as a toothbrush
- Do not leave immigration control without reporting your lost luggage otherwise you will not get any compensation
- Tell the University’s ‘Meet and Greet’ Welcome Team that you have lost luggage

If you take medication on a daily basis you should carry important medication in your hand luggage but if it is in your lost luggage tell the Welcome Team/ISAS immediately upon arrival.

- Call the airline every 12 hours or check on their website – delayed luggage is normally delivered within 72 hours
- Check your luggage when it arrives for damaged or missing items – if there are any problems, notify the airline immediately, or you may not be eligible for compensation
Welcome Week 2015

During Welcome Week the University and the Guild of Students (students’ union) provide a range of activities that you can attend. These events are designed to help you become familiar with the University and its campus and the services that are available to you during your studies, and to help you make friends with other students.

Why should you attend Welcome Week?
- It will help you make new friends through social events
- You will be able to find out about the support services available to you on campus
- You can attend social events, talks and departmental welcome events to help you settle at the University of Birmingham
- You can take part in University tours to help you familiarise yourself with your new environment
- You can get information on travelling to the University and the city centre
- It will make settling into University accommodation easier
- You can get information on travelling to the University and the city centre
- You can get help with University registration, opening bank accounts, registering with a doctor and dentist and registering with the police
- You can take part in International Day – a day for all new students of all nationalities

What is a Right to Study Check?
If you are a non-EEA national you will need a visa to come to the UK or stay in the UK. To complete your registration you must have a ‘Right to Study Check’ where we check your Visa.

You will either have:
- A vignette (visa sticker) in your passport which was placed there when your entry clearance visa was granted
- A stamp that was put in your passport when you arrived at the airport (this applies to non-visa nationals who are here for courses of less than six months)
- A biometric residence permit – this is a pink card that you will have been issued with when you extended your leave in the UK

The University is obliged to check that the visa you hold permits study in the UK and is appropriate for the course you want to study. You must bring your original documents to the Avon Room, University Centre (map ref: R23) where these will be checked, after which you can go and get your ID card. If there are any problems there will be an adviser available to give you advice.

Registering with the police
Students of certain nationalities are required to register with the police and this is a legal requirement which will usually apply to any dependants who travel with them.

To find out if you need to register check your visa. You must register if your visa states:
- ‘Register with UK police on arrival’, or
- ‘Register with the police within seven days’

You must do this within seven days of your arrival in the UK either at Welcome Week or at your local police station – the ISAS will be able to advise you on this.

I am arriving in the UK during International Welcome Week and I am required to register with the police: what should I do?
We have invited West Midlands Police to come to campus to register students. Further details of the dates, locations and how to book will be available on our website at intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/studentservices/international/visas/policeregistration.aspx.

I am returning to Birmingham or I have registered in another part of the UK – what should I do?
If you have already registered with the police and need to update your details, please visit our website at intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/studentservices/international/visas/policeregistration.aspx.

ISAS Welcome Events
You can also attend the International Welcome Reception and Afternoon Cream Tea events:

Studying at the University

Is study in the UK different from study in my own country?
You may find that methods of study in the UK are different from study that you have been used to. At the University we have an enquiry-based learning culture.

What is enquiry-based learning (EBL)?
EBL allows you to experience a range of teaching methods that aim to challenge and encourage you to have your own ideas.

This is achieved through:
- Reading and independent research
- Discussions and working with other students
- Self-motivation – you must have the dedication to study independently
- Setting yourself realistic goals
- Managing your time effectively and reflecting on what and how you learn

Will I be able to find help to do this?
Yes, your school will explain how EBL works in your studies. Some general aspects are:
- Being a student at university is about being independent – taking responsibility for your studies
- The lecturers are there to guide you and show you where to go, but it is up to you to do the research!
- You will be given a broad outline of what is required but you will be expected to bring to it your own perspective

What types of teaching methods can I expect?
- Lectures – academic staff share their knowledge with you but you are expected to do extra reading around your subject
- Analytical skills – you are expected to critically evaluate the information you receive in, for example, lectures
- Seminars – give you a very important opportunity to discuss and develop your ideas in small groups; an opportunity to talk and listen to the ideas of other students
- Tutorials – small groups or sometimes one-to-one sessions that allow you to reflect on your progress

If you would like support to help you adjust to our learning culture or to improve your learning skills, speak to your personal tutor or supervisor.

Your school will organise an induction so that you can meet your lecturers and other students. Details of the date and time of your academic induction will be sent to you.

What type of academic support can I expect from the University?
We expect you to enjoy your studies and perform well on your course but there may be times when you have some difficulties, eg, if you are ill and are not able to attend classes. There are a number of ways in which you can receive advice and support for any academic problems that you have during your studies, for example, essay writing, presentation skills, literature reviews and others.

Personal Tutor and School Senior Tutor
You will be given a personal tutor who will meet with you regularly throughout your time at the University. The role of the personal tutor is to:
- Monitor your academic performance
- Help you with any difficulties that you may have
- Be your first point of contact for any academic problems that you have during your studies

Each School/Department at the University has a Senior Tutor who oversees the quality of the personal tutorials.

Welfare tutor
Each University School/Department has a Welfare Tutor for you to contact if they need help with any academic or welfare problems.

You can speak to the welfare tutor in confidence and their role is to help you resolve your problem. Sometimes the welfare tutor may refer you to another University support service for more specialist help and advice. If you do not know who your personal tutor or your welfare tutor is you should contact your school at the University.

University Senior Tutor (UST)
The UST will provide strategic leadership and support on issues related to personal tutoring across the Campus.

Can I find out more about study methods in the UK before I arrive?
Yes. Look at the following sites where you will find some useful information:
- University study skills: www.skills4uni.bham.ac.uk
- UKCISA: www.ukcisa.org.uk/International-Students/Study-work-more/Other-useful-information/Tips-on-successful-study/

IT Services

As a student at Birmingham you will have free access to the information technology facilities you will need to support your studies.

IT Services supports the University network and computing systems and provides:

- Access to IT
- An IT account, details of which are on your registration email – keep this information safe as you will need it to start using ITS computing facilities when you arrive at the University
- Help when registering for your course online – contact the Registration helpline on +44 (0)121 414 9009 or log a call online at www.registrationhelp.bham.ac.uk
- Use of over 1,200 computers on campus, which can be found in nine dedicated locations – use your ‘My.Computing’ tab in www.my.bham.ac.uk
- Connections for using your own laptop or PC
- Free software downloads for your PC or laptop mysoftware.bham.ac.uk
- Access to the internet from your University hall of residence through an external company, Ask4 – for more information visit prearrival.ask4.com/index.php?site=f4e16
- Secure wireless access for your laptop across the whole of the Edgbaston main campus and at other sites – learn more at www.wireless.bham.ac.uk
- Help and advice

University portal (my.bham)
This is the place to find all the online information services that are appropriate to you. It provides:

- Your single point of access to a wide range of information and resources, including email and the eLibrary
- Your access to electronic information resources, the eLearning environment, WebCT for online course materials, online registration, past exam papers, exam timetables and results, campus news and much more

ISAS advice on health and wellbeing

The National Health Service (NHS)
The NHS is the UK’s state health service. If your course is for six months or more and you have paid the Immigration Health Surcharge after six months or more, you will be entitled to NHS treatment on the same basis as UK residents. This means consulting with a doctor and treatment in a hospital will be free of charge. You may be required to pay for other services such as prescriptions for medicines.

Optical treatment
Eye tests in the UK are done by opticians. You will normally be charged for an eye test unless you are under 19 years old and in full-time study. For more information please visit the UKCISA website at www.ukcisa.org.uk/student/info_sheets/keeping_healthy.php#optical

Registering with a doctor
It is important that you register with a doctor as soon as possible after arriving at university. In the UK, doctors who are your main point of contact for medical issues are referred to as GPs (general practitioners). If you are in need of non-urgent hospital treatment you must be referred by your GP, rather than visiting hospital yourself.

Due to its location close to campus many students choose to register with the University Medical Practice which is located on Pritchatts Road. In order to register please visit the practice, bringing with you your student visa and student ID card. For more information visit www.theump.co.uk

Dental care
There is a charge for all dental treatment in the UK but it is less expensive to be treated through the NHS than as a private patient. Dentists will take a limited number of NHS patients and may be unable to take you, or will offer to put you on a waiting list. It may not be possible to find a dentist who can treat you through the NHS and you may have to pay for your dental treatment. To find a dentist in Birmingham you should use the NHS choices website to find services near you: www.nhs.uk/pages/homepage.aspx In order to avoid additional costs when you are in the UK, we would recommend that you have a dental check before you travel.

Medical emergencies
If you or someone you are with needs urgent medical assistance you must telephone 999. This number is free to call from all phones including mobiles. You will need to request an ambulance and be prepared to give details of where you are and what has happened. If you require emergency treatment but feel you are well enough to travel you can visit Accident and Emergency (A&E) at a hospital. The closest A&E to the University is located at Queen Elizabeth Hospital. You may feel that it is better to take a taxi. Emergency medical treatment is free even if you do not qualify for general NHS treatment.

Directions to the Queen Elizabeth Hospital can be found on the hospital’s website at www.ueh.nhs.uk

Sexual health
British attitudes to sex may be different from those in your own country. It is often accepted that people who are involved in a relationship may have sex together. Of course, the choice is a personal one. You are entirely free to live according to your personal standards and should not feel pressured to adopt those of your fellow students.

If you think you will be sexually active or just wish to find out more information, it is important that you find out about contraception in the UK. You can get advice on this from your doctor or from a local family planning clinic (FPC). If you qualify for NHS treatment, you are entitled to free contraceptives and advice on birth control from the FPC. FPCs also provide free cervical smear and pregnancy tests.

Travel Insurance
It is essential that you take out travel insurance to cover your journey to the UK. This should cover delays, medical emergencies and the cost of replacing any belongings, ie, lost luggage. While you are living in the UK we strongly advise you to have insurance to cover the contents of your room/flat and belongings.

Cultural adjustment
Coming to live in another country can be at times very exciting and enjoyable and at other times it might not feel too good. This is normal. Everyone who lives in another country will find that they have days when they miss their own food, their families, their friends or their weather, and just generally do not feel so happy. You will go through stages when you will feel excited about the UK and the University and times when you will not. It is normal to have good days and bad days but it is important to know how to help yourself. Here are a few tips that may help you to cope with cultural adjustment:

☐ Keep in touch with home ie, Skype, telephone, writing a letter, fax, email
☐ Keep familiar things in your room such as photographs (or use as your screensaver)
☐ Talk to the ISAS about where you can find food from your country – this can help you keep a healthy and balanced diet
☐ Join the University gym and take regular exercise – it can also be a good way of meeting people
☐ Make friends with other students – learn about other cultures
☐ If you want someone to talk to about how you are feeling you can make use of the University support services, where there will always be professional and experienced staff on hand
☐ If you are finding your studies a little difficult, talk to your personal tutor
☐ For some students their faith community will be very important – check with the Chaplaincy for more information
☐ The Guild of Students has lots of groups and societies where there will be opportunities to meet new people

For more information visit: www.ukcisa.org.uk/International-Students/Living-in-the-UK/
Opening a UK bank account

Having a UK bank account is essential if you are studying in the UK for more than six months. You can find some branches of the main banks on the University campus. We advise that you compare the accounts of a few banks, and ask them what they can offer you before you make your choice.

When you arrive you can visit various banks and choose the one which you feel will be best for you.

There are many international banks in Birmingham city centre and if you have an account with them in your home country, you may find opening a UK account with them easier than with a bank that has no knowledge of you.

When choosing a bank account, ask:

- Will I have internet and telephone banking?
- Does it have standing order and direct debit facilities?
- What type of savings accounts do you have?
- Will I be required to maintain a minimum account balance or pay a monthly fee?
- Is there an overdraft facility?

For information on opening a bank account, please see: www.ukcisa.org.uk/international-students/when-you-arrive/opening-a-bank-account

Living in the UK

As well as being the UK’s second city, Birmingham is one of Europe’s most exciting cities. Its rich heritage, modern commercial centre and cultural diversity make it a vibrant and exciting place to live and study. Living in the UK is about the things you need to do when you arrive and things you can do including shopping and visiting tourist sites during your studies.

What do I need to do?

Council Tax
As an international student you may have to pay Council Tax depending on what kind of accommodation you live in and who you live with. Council Tax pays for local services, such as refuse collection and the police. Some properties are ‘exempt’, which means no Council Tax is payable at all and there will be no bill. In most cases if the only people living in the property are full-time students on an undergraduate or taught postgraduate course, then there will be no charge for Council Tax.

To find out more about Council Tax, please see: www.ukcisa.org.uk/student/info_sheets/council_tax.php

Electrical equipment
The British electricity supply works on 230 volts/50 cycles and most buildings have sockets which take a 13-amp square, three-pin plug. Please check that any electrical equipment you bring from home can be used on this voltage or can be converted. You should be able to purchase an adapter in the UK but please note that it is dangerous to overload sockets or circuits with too many adapters and you should never put a two-pin plug in a three-pin socket.

Television (TV) licence
- You are required by law to have a TV licence if you use a TV or any other device to receive or record television programmes – for example, a laptop, PC, mobile phone, digital box, DVD recorder or a TV set.
- The TV Licensing website has a section for students where you can find out if you need a TV licence and how to apply. Please visit www.tvlicensing.co.uk

Keeping safe
It is important that you take responsibility for your own personal safety while you are living in the UK. Here are some tips to help keep you safe:

- Never walk home alone at night – stay with a group of friends or order a taxi
- Keep your money secure and out of sight
- Keep your bank cards safe and separate from any note of your pin numbers
- When you are not in your student accommodation keep your windows and doors closed and locked, even if you will only be out for a short time

You can contact University of Birmingham Security 24 hours a day if you need help. Their number is 0121 414 3000. In emergencies please ring 0121 414 4444. You should save this number to your phone in case you need to contact them in an emergency.
