This year's Baggs Memorial lecture on the theme of Happiness will be delivered by the charismatic and popular broadcaster Gyles Brandreth.

Gyles is an established broadcaster, successful novelist, and former MP and Government Whip. Today, Gyles is probably best known for his role as reporter on BBC1's The One Show and as a regular guest on Radio 4's Just a Minute. Recently he has appeared on QI, Countdown, The Matt Lucas Award Show, Have I Got News For You and Desert Island Discs. Gyles's acclaimed Victorian detective stories; The Oscar Wilde Murder Mysteries are now published in twenty-one countries around the world and he has recently appeared on stage as Malvolio in Twelfth Night and Lady Bracknell in a musical version of The Importance of Being Ernest.

This is a free ticketed event. Please register for tickets using our Registration Form (<http://www.birmingham.ac.uk/forms/oncampus/Baggs-Memorial-Happiness-Lecture-2013.aspx>)
