

Alumni Gathering in Delhi - 26 February 2013

Kerrie Holland, Volunteer Relationship Manager, along with staff from our India Office, hosted an informal gathering for alumni in Delhi. Kerrie loves these gatherings – pretty much wherever you are in the world it's possible to get a group of people talking passionately about Birmingham. The top memories are usually the same: the halls of residence; the paternoster lifts in Muirhead Tower; graduation in the Great Hall and our beautiful campus. We had several young alumni in attendance which was great – they had completed their Masters degrees and graduated just a couple of months ago in December. Older alumni were clearly concerned about student employability, particularly now it is harder for Indian students to get UK work experience after graduation, but the recent alumni were positive about their prospects and really valued their experience at Birmingham.
