

Alumna to appear on The Apprentice

Posted on Wednesday 27th October 2010

Hoping not to hear the dreaded words 'You're fired' on the new series of hit programme The Apprentice, starting tonight on BBC1, will be 24-year-old alumna Liz Locke.

Liz (BSc Accounting and Finance, 2007) will be one of 16 applicants completing different challenges each week as they compete for a six-figure salary as the apprentice of business supremo Lord Alan Sugar.

Investment banker and health fanatic Liz likens herself to 'a Lamborghini – fast, exciting, stylish and successful', and will be hoping to impress Lord Sugar with her 'ambitious, energetic and loyal' qualities to claim the title in this, the programme's sixth series.

For further information and to watch Liz's audition tape, visit The Apprentice website \(http://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p00b8p3p\).

Picture courtesy of the BBC/Talkback.