College of Arts and Law launches alumni bursary

The College of Arts and Law has launched a new alumni bursary scheme for all University of Birmingham graduates returning to undertake postgraduate study.

For courses starting in September 2013, all alumni will be entitled to a £750 reduction on full-time postgraduate taught courses in the College, which includes MA, MSc, MRes and LLM qualifications.

The College offers around 100 Masters programmes in a range of subject areas, including Classics, English, Heritage, History, Law, Music, Philosophy and Theology.

The bursary is also available for part-time courses, applied pro-rata.
