

Win a working wardrobe

If you've spent the last three years wearing a hoody and your idea of dressing up is putting on jeans instead of tracksuit bottoms, our Class of 2014 graduation competition is for you.

Getting kitted out for your first job can be expensive, but the lucky winner of our 2014 prize draw will receive a £300 voucher towards their first suit or outfit for work.

To enter, simply tweet or post a picture of yourself at graduation to one of our social media accounts or email your photo to alumnicommunications@contacts.bham.ac.uk (<mailto:alumnicommunications@contacts.bham.ac.uk>). If you like, we'd also love to hear why you deserve to win, or simply tell us what you'll miss about Birmingham.

This competition is exclusively for Class of 2014 University of Birmingham graduates and one winner from December graduations will be picked. Closing date for entries is 5 January 2015.
