

Disability and the Artist

Locations	Barber Institute
Date(s)	Friday 6th December 2013 (14:00-15:00)
Contact	Free but booking is essential. Please contact the Barber at education@barber.org.uk (mailto:education@barber.org.uk) or on 0121 414 2261.
Download	Add to Calendar (/events/disability-focus/Talks/Disability-and-the-artist.aspx?ical=true)

As part of the University's Focus on Disability event, come along to the Barber for a disability-focused talk; featuring representations of disability in paintings, and to learn about artists who themselves experienced mental and physical challenges including Renoir, Van Gogh and Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec. Followed by coffee, tea and cake in the Barber foyer.

View accessibility information on the venue \(http://www.disabledgo.com/en/access-guide/barber-institute-of-fine-art/university-of-birmingham\)

