

Vice-Chancellor David Eastwood: Being Disabled, One Person's Story

| | |
|------------------|---|
| Locations | Barber Institute Lecture Theatre |
| Date(s) | Thursday 28th November 2013 (12:00-13:00) |
| Contact | Please register your interest with Kerrie Hall (mailto:k.a.hall@bham.ac.uk) . |
| Download | Add to Calendar (/events/disability-focus/Talks/vice-chancellor.aspx?ical=true) |

As part of the University's Focus on Disability fortnight, the Vice-Chancellor Professor David Eastwood will be talking about his own personal experience of disability. Join us at the Barber Institute lecture hall for his talk followed by a Q&A session. A light buffet will follow in the Barber foyer.

This talk is open to all staff and students. To register your interest, please contact Kerrie Hall \(mailto:k.a.hall@bham.ac.uk\).

View accessibility guidance for this venue \(http://www.disabledgo.com/en/access-guide/barber-institute-of-fine-art/university-of-birmingham\).

