

Support and Aspiration: A new approach to special educational needs and disability - Progress and next steps

Locations R19 School of Education, Vaughan Jeffrey's Lecture Theatre

Date(s) Thursday 28th June 2012 (14:15-16:15)

Contact To reserve a place please contact:

Christopher Robertson

Email: c.m.robertson@bham.ac.uk (<mailto:c.m.robertson@bham.ac.uk>)

Tel: +44 (0) 121 414 4832

or

Karen Turner-Brown

Email: karen.turner-brown@bham.ac.uk (<mailto:karen.turner-brown@bham.ac.uk>)

Tel: +44 (0) 121 41 44834

Download Add to Calendar \(/events/lectures/support-aspiration.aspx?ical=true\)

This seminar focuses on new SEN and disability education policy in England and the implications of proposed changes for schools, services and professionals.

Key speakers will share their responses to key proposals in the 'progress and next steps' in the first part of the seminar. You will then have the opportunity to respond to their commentaries and to share your views in a 'Question Time' panel discussion.

Chair

Christopher Robertson, Lecturer in Inclusive and Special Education

Speakers

Professor Klaus Wedell Emeritus Professor of Educational Psychology and Special Educational Needs, Institute of Education, University of London

Alison Weaver SEN Adviser and Manager, Inclusive Education Service, Nottingham City Council

Professor Brahm Norwich Professor of Educational Psychology and Special Educational Needs, University of Exeter

2.15pm – 3.13pm Seminar presentation

3.15pm – 4.15pm Questions and discussion

Light refreshments will be available from 1.30pm

Cost: Free of Charge

Privacy | Legal | Cookies and cookie policy | Accessibility | Site map | Website feedback | Charitable information

© University of Birmingham 2015

