Brass Bands England presents:

English National Brass Band Championship

Brass Bands England is proud to present the first brass band contest to be held in the Elgar Concert Hall!

The English National Brass Band Championships is an all day contest featuring some of the top brass bands in England, performing a set test piece (George Lloyd's Diversions on a Bass Theme) in the morning and their own repertoire choice in the afternoon, as they attempt to impress the adjudicators and win the £4000 first prize. The winners will also be invited to represent England at the European Brass Band Championships in 2014.
