Summer Festival of Music

Taking inspiration from Facing the Music: 20th-Century Portraits of British Composers at the Barber Institute of Fine Arts (Friday 25 May - Tuesday 28 August, admission free), this popular ensemble rounds off the 2012 Summer Festival of Music with a concert of 20th-century music, including Benjamin Britten's Serenade for Tenor, Horn and Strings.

Part of the Summer Festival of Music \(1%20contensis\). The Summer Festival of Music has been running at the University of Birmingham for over 20 years. It is a week-long festival organised by students to create music-making opportunities for performers from across the University and the wide community. Each year the festival welcomes new participants in a variety of roles - from conductors, composers and the many members of the ensembles to the organising committee - ensuring that there is something for everyone.

This year the Birmingham-based Edward's Trust \(1%20contensis\) is our charity partner.
