

Reprographics

The following information on our comprehensive reprographic services, costs and procedures, provides general guidance. If you need further information, please discuss your requirement with us.

Applying for copies

Copies are made at our discretion, and will be supplied in the form of a microform printout wherever possible. If the material you require is not on microfilm/fiche, we can supply a photocopy (if items are suitable for photocopying), or we may be able to offer a digital image. We will advise you if we are unable to process your order, or to fulfill some element(s) of it.

Orders will usually be completed within 15 working days. Large orders, those of a more complex nature, or requests for publication may take longer.

To submit a request for research or private study, please return a signed and completed reprographics order form for private study \(PDF - 69KB\)* (/facilities/cadbury/documents/reprographics-form-personal.pdf) either as a scanned email attachment or by post. If you wish to publish an image, please complete a reprographics order form for publication \(PDF - 88KB\) (/facilities/cadbury/documents/reprographics-form-for-publication.pdf). The forms can't be filled in online. Electronic signatures are acceptable.

* If your order is for copies from archive or manuscript material, you will also need to complete a copy of our application for access to archives and manuscripts \(PDF - 56KB\) (/facilities/cadbury/documents/accessform.pdf). If you have not previously returned one of these forms, please submit a completed copy of the form with your reprographics order.

Charges for copies (research or private study only)

All orders will incur an additional £5 handling fee (excluding orders of up to ten photocopies of material viewed and requested in the reading room).

VAT: All students and overseas postal orders received from countries outside the EU are exempt from paying VAT. If you are an institution within the EU and you are a 'VAT registered body in the EU', please let us know.

If you cancel your order after our reprographics team have begun to process it, we reserve the right to charge a cancellation fee.
