

French

Charlemagne "To have another language is to possess a second soul"

It is common knowledge that speaking another language helps you get to know and understand another culture. You might think that nowadays other languages are more useful to learn for economic reasons, but think again. French is a truly global language: it is an official language of the United Nations, the second official language at the Olympic Games and the International Red Cross. French is the lingua franca of art, cuisine, dance and fashion. And most importantly, French is the language of love!

Nelson Mandela "If you talk to a man in a language he understands, that goes to his head. If you talk to him in his language, that goes to his heart."

If you decide to learn French with us, you will meet Emilie \(/staff/profiles/cml/grinan-emilie.aspx\), Marie, Sophie \(/staff/profiles/cml/sophie-gavrois.aspx\) or Valérie \(/staff/profiles/cml/leick-valerie.aspx\). We are all native speakers coming from different areas of France, qualified in teaching French as a foreign language and highly experienced. Our motto could be "C'est en forgeant qu'on devient forgeron" (practice makes perfect) and we plan our lessons so as to maximise our students' use of French in the classroom.
