

Summer placements students assisting in Leverhulme Trust Funded Project

Posted on Friday 19th July 2013

Two summer placement students - Luis Hernandez Munos and David Nash from the Electrical, Electronics and Computer Engineering have been appointed to assist in the Leverhulme Trust Funded Project.

The students are assisting us in various experiments to understand how people cooperate asynchronously and synchronously in fragment reconstructions in physical and virtual modalities.