

Digital Heritage Demonstrator Project Roadshow Success

Posted on Friday 29th June 2012

The Digital Heritage Demonstrator project team have recently completed a series of successful regional project engagement roadshows across the West Midlands.

With over 90 organisations in attendance across the four events, including West Midlands businesses from a range of sectors, cultural and heritage organisations and Stakeholders, the DHD technical team were able to commence a wide range of initial discussions about potential collaborative opportunities.
