Leadership in health and care

This week we publish a HSMC newsletter on the theme of leadership \(http://www.birmingham.ac.uk/Documents/college-social-sciences/social-policy/HSMC/publications/Newsletters/newsletter-volume20-no2.pdf\). Over the last 25 years much has been written about leadership in the NHS and millions of pounds have been spent on developing leaders at local, regional and national levels, and yet the NHS has just emerged from yet another scandal that revealed an all too familiar tale of poor quality of care, patient neglect, and a lack of organisational leadership. What is clear from this continued legacy is that the approach to leadership development has not had the desired impact anticipated.
