

Understanding Haematology tests – when to refer

Date(s) Tuesday 11th February 2014 (09:00-17:00)

Download Add to Calendar \(/facilities/mds-cpd/events/haematology.aspx?ical=true\)

Course summary

This course is aimed at GP's and the following areas of haematology will be discussed; red cells and haemoglobin, white cells, platelets and coagulation, the common laboratory tests used, how to interpret them and parameters at which referral to a haematologist is indicated.

Learning objectives

At the end of this course you will have:

- An understanding of the tests used in all areas of haematology
- An ability to interpret results from these tests
- A knowledge of when to refer patients to a haematologist based upon abnormal laboratory test results

Speakers

Dr Gillian Lowe – Clinical Research Fellow and Haematology Specialist Registrar, University of Birmingham
Dr Will Lester – Consultant Haematologist, UHB
Dr Jim Murray - Consultant Haematologist, UHB

Course details

Duration

1 day

Location

Clinical Sciences Building, University of Birmingham

Is this course accredited?

This 1 day course is CPD accredited.

Fees

£150

How to apply

Register for this course online (http://shop.bham.ac.uk/browse/extra_info.asp?compid=1&modid=2&deptid=33&catid=56&prodid=717) using a credit/debit card

For more information please contact Tamara Ball

Email: t.c.ball@bham.ac.uk (<mailto:t.c.ball@bham.ac.uk>)

Tel: 0121 414 2677