James Minhas, International Officer at the University of Birmingham, will be visiting Lagos on Thursday 28 June. He will be holding the following at the UKEAS office, 76 Opebi Road, Ikeja, Lagos:

Individual student counselling sessions (11.00-16.00) – a chance for you to talk more about the courses, ask questions and/or gain help with your application.

Please note that James is able to certify supporting documents such as degree certificates and transcripts. If you have not already submitted these and would like to use this service please bring your original certified documents for James to see and one photocopy of each which will be taken back to the University.

Pre-departure talk for offer holders (16.00 –18.00) - a talk to offer holders which gives useful and important information about accommodation, visas, required preparation for study in the UK and details of what to expect in the first few weeks. This will help ease the transition into the UK and ensure you are fully prepared for study.

Please note that former students will also give a talk on their experience and there will be a chance to ask plenty of questions.

To book a place for one of the counselling sessions or to attend the offer talk please contact our Country Officer Enweazu Ajiduah at the contact details below:
