The Barber Institute of Fine Arts, declared 'Gallery of the Year' by the Good Britain Guide 2004, is one of the world's finest small galleries. See the Barber Institute website (<http://www.barber.org.uk/>) for details of our temporary exhibitions, our regular concert programme, and all the additional lectures and family events that take place throughout the year.

The Gallery Shop features prints and stationery, based on The Barber's collection, as well as a large selection of books on art and art history.

If you would like to find out more, please call +44 (0)121 414 7333.

Admission to the permanent collection and all exhibitions is free.
