

Recruiters' Club

Designed to help you make the most of your relationship with the University, the Recruiters' Club will also help you to raise your profile on campus through reduced costs for advertising and preferential early booking for presentations, along with a host of other benefits.

Exclusive member benefits

One year-long membership for academic year 2014-2015 includes:

- Current market information on our students
- Three entries in our subscriber e-newsletter
- Preferential early booking for 2014-15 presentations programmes
- Reduced presentation administration/publicity fee
- Preferential booking for 2014-15 Careers Fairs
- Invitation to an annual Recruiters' Club members' day on campus
- Regular communication from Careers Network and University giveaways
- Promotion of your campus and external events via our Facebook page and Twitter
- Invitation to take part in College-based events
- Plasma screen advertising in Careers Network (fee applies)
- Preferential sponsorship opportunities

Get in touch

For more information on Recruiters' Club and the benefits it can offer your business, please contact Rachel Quiney, Employer Relations Events Manager at r.j.quiney@bham.ac.uk (<mailto:r.j.quiney@bham.ac.uk>).

