

PhD with Integrated Study in Shakespeare Studies

This innovative programme, delivered by the Shakespeare Institute \(/schools/edacs/departments/shakespeare/index.aspx\), combines taught coursework with a full-length doctoral thesis. It allows students to combine a broad foundation in Shakespeare studies and its research methods through taught and assessed coursework, with the full research training and experience of the traditional PhD.

Details

You will begin the programme with the core research skills module (20 credits) before creating your own package of 100 credits (normally 5 x 20 credit modules) from a choice of modules from the MA in Shakespeare Studies \(/postgraduate/courses/taught/english/shakespeare-studies.aspx\) and/or MA in Shakespeare, Stratford-upon-Avon and the Cultural History of Renaissance England \(/postgraduate/courses/taught/english/shakespeare-stratford-cultural-hist.aspx\); English Department \(http://www.english.bham.ac.uk/pg/\) and other Departments/Schools.

In addition to Research Skills, a minimum of 40 credits should be taken from modules available at the Shakespeare Institute, such as:

- Shakespeare, the Playwright and his Drama
- Plays and Poems of Shakespeare
- History of Shakespeare in Performance
- Textual Studies in Shakespeare
- History of Shakespeare Criticism

Further credits can then be taken from modules available in either the Department of English or by special arrangement (to a maximum of 40 credits), modules from other departments in the University.

In summary, you will complete 120 credits from taught M-level, plus successfully complete a supervised 80,000-word PhD thesis .

Please note: The modules on the MA Shakespeare and Theatre and the MA Shakespeare and Education are not available to students on the PhD with Integrated Study.

Visiting the Shakespeare Institute

We welcome prospective students to visit the Shakespeare Institute. We usually arrange open afternoons to coincide with two of our weekly Thursday seminar series a term which gives you a good opportunity to experience the Shakespeare Institute and to meet our staff and students. The next open afternoon \(/schools/edacs/departments/shakespeare/events/2015/open-afternoon-mar.aspx\) will take place on Thursday 12 March 2015. If you would like to visit us at another time, please contact us.

- Watch our videos about the Shakespeare Institute, our specialist library and student life in Stratford-upon-Avon \(/schools/edacs/departments/shakespeare/videos.aspx\)

At Birmingham you also have the option of studying languages \(http://www.birmingham.ac.uk/schools/calgs/personal-development/languages.aspx\), free of charge. Almost no other UK University offers you the opportunity to learn the intense graduate academic language skills which you may need to pursue your research.

Fees and funding

We charge an annual tuition fee. Fees for 2015/16 are as follows:

- Home / EU: £4,590 full-time, £2,295 part-time
- Overseas: £13,695 full-time

Tuition fees can either be paid in full or by instalments. Learn more about postgraduate tuition fees and funding \(/postgraduate/dr-fees/index.aspx\).

Eligibility for Home/EU or Overseas fees can be verified with Admissions. Learn more about fees for international students \(/International/students/finance/fees.aspx\).

Scholarships and studentships

Scholarships to cover fees and/or maintenance costs may be available. To be eligible for these awards, candidates must hold either an offer of a place to study or have submitted an application to study at the University. To discover whether you are eligible for any award across the University, and to start your funding application, please visit the University's Postgraduate Funding Database \(http://www.birmingham.ac.uk/students/fees/funding/FundingFilter.aspx\).

International students can often gain funding through overseas research scholarships, Commonwealth scholarships or their home government.
