

Graduate Russian Language III - Advanced Oral

Modular Value: 20 credits

Duration: All year

Teaching: Two hours per week

Lecturer: Tanya Lipatova \(/staff/profiles/russian/lipatova-tanya.aspx\)

The module will include practice in listening and watching audiovisual materials from Russian TV and other sources followed by discussion of their content; discussion on academic topics related to research and practice for interviews with Russian academics; practice in making presentations on topics related to research; practice in conducting field interviews – preparation of questions, understanding and responding to replies.

Course Aims to acquire language proficiency adequate for active use in field research and communication with Russian specialists in their fields.

Assessment

- Two assignments each semester (50%)
- Oral exam consisting of oral presentation on research and practice interview (50%)

This course is available only to postgraduates who have completed the module: Graduate Ab Initio Russian II \(Intermediate\) (</postgraduate/courses/taught/govsoc/modules/graduate-ab-initio-russian-intermediate.aspx>) or have a knowledge of Russian equivalent to this.