

IDD Masters degree module outlines

IDD offers a wide range of modules. You may also select modules from other departments when this makes sense within your programme of study. You are advised to discuss module choices with your programme director at the beginning of the academic year. Find out more about our Masters degrees (</schools/government-society/departments/international-development/courses/masters.aspx>).

Additional module choices

Other modules throughout the School of Government and Society include:

- Political Science and International Studies (</postgraduate/courses/taught/govsoc/modules/index-polsis.aspx>)
- Local Government Studies (</postgraduate/courses/taught/govsoc/modules/index-inlogov.aspx>)

IDD students can consider other modules outside the main discipline throughout the University in consultation with their programme director.

See the individual Masters degrees (</schools/government-society/departments/international-development/courses/masters.aspx>) pages for a detailed list of modules taken with the degree.
