FindAMasters & FindAPhD Postgraduate Study Fair at the University of Birmingham

Wednesday 28th January 2015
The Great Hall, the University of Birmingham

Situated at the historic Great Hall of the University of Birmingham, The FindAMasters & FindAPhD Postgraduate Study Fair is your chance to speak to representatives from UK and overseas universities about whether Masters or PhD study is right for you.

The event is completely free to attend and will be accompanied by a packed programme of talks and seminars designed to help you with the more complex issues of postgraduate study, including:

- The benefits of postgraduate study.
- How to secure funding.
- Application advice.
- Studying abroad
- CV clinics, and much more.

Who is it for?

The event is perfect if you're considering postgraduate study, so maybe you're a:

- Final-year student thinking about your options after your degree.
- First or second year student thinking ahead
- Recent graduate looking to add to your qualifications.
- Graduate exploring career development.

Whatever stage you're at, visiting the FindAMasters & FindAPhD Postgraduate Study Fair at the University of Birmingham will help you to gather more information so you can clarify your options and plan your next step.
