

AHRC funding for PhDs in Translation Studies

Posted on Friday 1st November 2013

The Birmingham Centre for Translation at the University of Birmingham is delighted to announce a range of AHRC-funded studentships for September 2014, through its involvement in the Midlands3Cities Doctoral Training Partnership.

Please note the events below 27 November and 2nd December 2013, and the deadline of 9 January 2014.

We will consider applications for PhD study in all areas relevant to our own research \(/research/activity/bct/research/index.aspx\).

These scholarships are open to applicants from the EU, including the UK. They will enable the recipients to undertake meaningful and stimulating research under the guidance of a supportive and distinguished group of academics. To apply for funding, students must have applied for a place to study at the University of Birmingham and have already provided two academic references via the university's application system. The deadline for funding applications is 12 noon, Thursday 9 January 2014.

For further information, please visit the Arts and Humanities Research Council funding page \(/schools/calgs/scholarships/ahrc-funding.aspx\) or email: ahrc@contacts.bham.ac.uk.
