

Summer/Winter School

Posted on Thursday 5th January 2012

From the 2-13 July 2012 the first Birmingham/Melbourne Summer/Winter School in Applied Linguistics will be held at the University of Birmingham. Described as a Summer/Winter School to reflect its bilateral orientation, the two-week programme offers an intensive research development opportunity for new and emergent scholars in Applied Linguistics.

The programme consists of four themes:

- Language Testing
- Academic Writing
- Multilingualism
- Corpus Linguistics

For further information, see the Workshop page \(http://www.birmingham.ac.uk/schools/education/departments/language-discourse-society/birmingham-melbourne-school/school-applied-linguistics.aspx\).