

Defence Procurement Conference in Munich

Posted on Thursday 15th March 2012

In February 2012 Professor Trybus presented a paper on the legislative background of the new Defence and Security Procurement Directive 2009/81/EC at a conference on this Directive and its transposition into national law organised by the 'Forum Vergabe e.V.' (German Procurement Association, based in Berlin), the University of the German Federal Armed Forces Munich, and the law firm Orth Kluth Rechtsanwälte (based in Duesseldorf) on the premises of the University of the German Federal Armed Forces in Munich.

The conference was attended by over 70 judges, lawyers, procurement officials, policy makers, and officers. Professor Trybus was also on the panel for the panel discussion which concluded the event.
