

Professor Trybus addresses anti-corruption conference in Czech Republic

Posted on Thursday 10th October 2013

On 10 September 2013 IEL Director Professor Martin Trybus addressed an Anti-Corruption Conference in Brno in the Czech Republic organised by the Czech Anti-Corruption NGO Oziveni (<http://www.oziveni.cz>) and the Slovak chapter of Transparency International (<http://www.transparency.sk/en/>).

His paper dealt with public procurement oversight in the new public procurement Directives which will probably be passed by the Council and European Parliament in December 2013.

The conference in the historic Town Hall of Brno was attended by about 70 participants from both republics.
