

Public Law & Human Rights: current research students

The following postgraduate students are currently working on, or have recently completed, research projects in the field of Public Law & Human Rights:

- Paul Bishop (Art 3 of the Geneva Conventions & Non-Derogable Human Rights)
- Matthew Burton (</schools/law/research/postgraduateresearch/profiles/burton-matthew.aspx>) (Commonwealth Constitutionalism and Political Rights Review)
- Waheed Chaudhry (Extra Judicial Comments)
- Matthew Gayle (Constitutionalism in the Caribbean Commonwealth)
- Jack Mwiamli (Fair Trial in Kenya)
- Noel McGuirk (</schools/law/research/postgraduateresearch/profiles/mcquirk-noel.aspx>) (Terrorist Profiling)