

About us

The Research and Knowledge Transfer (R&KT) Office provides:

- The first point of contact, both internally and externally, for advice and assistance with all research-related issues;
- Research funding reference material and information for all College staff to access;
- Strategic, planning and development guidance for all aspects of the College's Research and Knowledge Transfer strategy and associated matters;
- An essential interface with relevant corporate services, particularly the University's Research and Innovation Services (RIS), (<https://intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/finance/ris/index.aspx>) the Research Support Group (<https://intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/finance/accounting/Research-Support-Group/index.aspx>), and Alta Innovations Ltd (<http://www.birmingham.ac.uk/generic/alta-innovations/index.aspx>), the technology transfer arm of the University.
