

Courses

Mathematics and Computing in Biology and Medicine Masters/MSc

(<http://www.birmingham.ac.uk/students/courses/postgraduate/taught/maths/maths-computing-biology-medicine.aspx>)

Postgraduate Masters / MSc degree course in Mathematics and Computing in Biology and Medicine, School of Mathematics, University of Birmingham. MSc Mathematics and Computing in Biology and Medicine is a new one year master's level course at the interfaces of Mathematics, Computer Science, Systems Biology and Biochemical Engineering, as part of the University of Birmingham's £1 million investment in Systems Science for Health.

Opportunities also exist for doctoral research and advanced postdoctoral training at Birmingham. Please contact us \(/research/activity/metabolomics/contact/index.aspx\) for further information.