

Policy Commission Workshops

The Policy Commission hosted a series of workshops to hear from and debate with experts from a range of backgrounds and perspectives -

- Workshop 1: 'Redesigning Public Service Relationships', 27 January 2011 (/research/impact/policy-commissions/public-services/commissionworkshop1.aspx)
- Workshop 2: 'Changing Citizen's Behaviour', 17 February 2011 (/research/impact/policy-commissions/public-services/commissionworkshop2.aspx)
- Workshop 3: 'Reproducing Success and Mitigating Failure', 10 March 2011 (/research/impact/policy-commissions/public-services/commissionworkshop3.aspx)

The Commission also held separate meetings with interest groups and individuals including -

- Roundtable event with the CBI Public Services Strategy Board (<http://publicservices.cbi.org.uk>)
- Meeting with Sir Bob Kerslake (Permanent Secretary, Department for Communities and Local Government (<http://www.communities.gov.uk/corporate>))
- Meeting with Sir Michael Lyons
- 'Table for Ten' (/schools/government-society/departments/local-government-studies/news/2010/11/alumni-table-ten.aspx) event with University of Birmingham alumni on theme of 'Where now for the Public Sector and the aspiring Public Service Professional?'
- Vice Chancellor's Select Dinner to test out initial findings with national experts on the 'Big Society'

In addition, the Commission undertook a survey of young people's views, a series of practical case studies and held focus groups with young people.

