

Publications impact

Our research findings are disseminated throughout a number of publications so that our findings and innovative ideas can be developed further by the international research community.

Research at Birmingham is an online catalogue of material produced by members of the University and contains details of articles, conference papers, book chapters and publications.

Access our online catalogue >> \(http://rab.bham.ac.uk\)