The changing world of perfume and why some chemicals are being taken out

(/university/colleges/eps/news/college/2014/changing-world-of-perfume-chemicals-taken-out.aspx)

There are two types of perfume in the world: the fast turnover celebrity perfumes, designed to hit the market and make profits before a star's capital wanes; and the timeless classics, with their expensive ingredients and loyal followings. While the names endure, many of the ingredients and quantities have changed over time.
